PREFACE

The purpose of this volume is to make available in one convenient source all of the law titles that have been microfilmed by the Library of Congress and which in most cases may be acquired from the Library's Photoduplication Service. This project was undertaken at the suggestion of several law librarians who had been frustrated in their attempts to obtain this information from existing microform bibliographies.

Most of the over 1,900 titles in this work are 19th and 20th century American law treatises that have been microfilmed to preserve them. As the Law Library removed its volumes from the shelves to be reclassified, these were found to have brittle paper or other severe preservation problems and were set aside for filming. Other law libraries holding titles from the same period are also likely to find some of their volumes in a deteriorating state, and thus it is hoped that this checklist on an alternative source will prove useful. Furthermore, many of the volumes listed are scarce and no longer available in hard copy.

Certain serials were also in need of microfilming to preserve them. Many of the serial titles included here are official gazettes of foreign nations, most notably Latin American countries.

Of the remaining titles, most are American and foreign monographs microfilmed because of the frequency of requests received for them.

The Law Library hopes that by bringing this information together in one publication and also providing information not available in other printed sources, i.e., the new K classification number, the shelf number, and the L.C. card number, other libraries will find it easier to identify and to order law titles microfilmed by the Library of Congress.

Carleton W. Kenyon
Law Librarian

INTRODUCTION

SCOPE

The titles listed in this publication are only the law monographs and serials that have been microfilmed by the Library of Congress from the collections of the Law Library of Congress. The entries do not represent, therefore, the complete microfilm holdings in the Law Library and are meant merely to supplement the standard bibliographic sources that cover the hundreds of legal microform titles obtained for the Law Library from commercial and other sources. Many, but not all, of the titles in this publication are listed in the National Register; very few of them appear in any other printed source.

ARRANGEMENT

The list is arranged in two parts--monographs and serials. Each part in turn is in alphabetical order by main entry. Since many of the titles have not yet been cataloged, entries appearing in the list may not always strictly conform to established cataloging practices.

BIBLIOGRAPHIC DESCRIPTION

For each entry the following items of bibliographical description are provided when readily available: main entry, title (frequently truncated), edition statement, imprint, principal pagination, notes (restricted to brief notes concerning the microfilm edition only), classification number, microfilm shelf number, and Library of Congress card number. When available, the new K classification number is given.

In order to facilitate the filling of orders, the microfilm shelf number is provided so that it may be included on order forms submitted to the Photoduplication Service.

NOTICE
WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purpose in excess of "fair use", that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
